

Pre-K/Kindergarten SIRI & Ohio Early Learning Content Standards

Ohio's Pre-K/K State Institutes for Reading Instruction (SIRI) modules have been designed to provide all early childhood educators including childcare, Head Start, preschool and kindergarten teachers with an in-depth understanding of critical components of early literacy skills.

The Ohio Early Learning Content Standards (OELCS) have been designed to provide teachers with an in-depth understanding of the competencies needed (standards) by Ohio's children and the knowledge, skill base, and effective practices educators need to support children's emergent content understandings.
